Fortesque.

The dredge boat is slowly crawling along, and is nearly opposite Napier.
Our little town is booming, much corn is being bought and shipped out.
We venture the assertion that more poultry is delivered at this place, than any place of its size in the state.
The B. & M. company is repairing track at the head of the Big lake, with the view of keeping the river out of the lake, consequently many men will get employment, probably all winter.
Many sad accidents have occurred in and around Fortescue in the last few years, but the saddest of all is the news that has just reached us, that George Butrick, formerly of this place, had only a few days ago been burned to death in an Iowa town. It seems that he had been drinking, and had been put in jail, and while in confinement it is said he set the jail on fire, and two men perished with him, and the fourth was so badly burned that recovery is doubted. His relatives and friends here were shocked to hear this sad news.

Farm For Sale.

For Sale, 40 acres of land; well improved. Will sell and give possession any time. About 20 acres in Clover and Timothy, balance was in corn that made 50 bushels to the acre. Plenty of peach, plum and cherry trees and grapes. Two good hen houses in good shape for raising chickens. Good two room house. Come and look at this place before you buy or rent. I can give you a bargain that will beat renting.
I also have a good mare and colt and a young horse that I will sell right. Come and investigate these bargains. Will find this place 7 miles east of Oregon, on the state road. Farmers' Phone No. 494. A bargain for some one that wants a small home. Will not hold at this price, $45 per acre, any longer than January 1, 1906.

MART WRIGHT,

R. F. D., No. 3.
—Harry T. Dillon and Miss Bertha Acton, of New Point, were married on Wednesday of last week.

For Two Score Years.

Forty years is a good long time to live, but to live together as husband and wife, it is surely a good long time—but when that home is the ideal Christian home, it does not seem so very, very long—the years roll swiftly by. When the home is dedicated to God and to all those things that enter into the true, pure, elevating, refining home building, and we admit that in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery, of this city, all these may be found. This home building began with them, when on November 14, 1865, in the little city of Olney, Ills., Mr. Robert Montgomery and Miss Francis S. White, became husband and wife, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. White. The groom had come to the United States from Bangor, Ireland, and located in Jackson, O.; he was but a lad of scarce 17 summers; here he grew to splendid manhood, and here he met his sweetheart, who, through all these 40 years has been his sweetheart; but they were patient—education was what the young lady desired, and shortly after she graduated from the Western Female College, of Oxford, O., they were married. In 1871 they came to Oregon, where he became interested in the banking business, and is now retired and enjoying a modest competency, and although they have had but one child, a son, H. W., born to them, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery have filled to the highest measure, God's injunction to be the father to the fatherless by caring for and raising five other children, and they, like his own, have felt and know the power there is in right living at home, for they each have grown into splendid men and women, upon whom their dear foster parents can look with pride and consolation.

The fortieth anniversary of the marriage of the couple, was the occasion for a perfect day of pleasure; their children and their children's children came with tokens and words of love; to greet them and to feast once more under the dear old roof that had sheltered them for so many years—mid storm and sunshine alike; where they had romped and played "hide-and-seek" just as their children were doing on this anniversary occasion—what memories such occasions bring; what joy, what perfect happiness. Those who came to greet Father and Mother Montgomery were: H. W. Montgomery, wife and children Frances and Neil, of Skidmore; Mrs. Mary Austin and daughter, Miss Agnes, of St. Joseph. Hugh Montgomery and wife, Will McRoberts, wife and daughter, Laura, of Mound City. Henry Fiegenbaum, wife and daughter, Louise, of Springfield, Neb. W. E. Fiegenbaum, wife and daughter Frances, of Geneva, Neb. Miss Grace Montgomery, of Oregon. With music, games, anecdotes and fun, bright conversation, and watching the little tots do just as grandmas and mamas used to do, filled the hours full of pleasure, and it only needed the elegant menu so lavishly prepared and charmingly served to finish a perfectly planned function. The guests, the dear children, are now back again in their respective homes, far away from the dear old homestead, but near to Father and Mother Montgomery, is the warm hearts and silent prayers of as fine a bunch of manly boys and girls as were raised and developed in our community, for whom THE SENTINEL has the highest personal regard and esteem. Our people as a whole fully appreciate such home makers and we all wish—may silently pray that Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery's days may yet be many.

REAL ESTATE

In addition to what we advertised last week, we call your attention to the following, to-wit:

- No. 13. 80 acres, 3 miles of Forbes, with a good 4-room dwelling, built in 1901; small stable, smoke house, 2 hen houses, hog shed, cow shed, 3 good springs, one near house; 3/4 mile to school house; all under fence. Has 800 apple, besides all kinds of other fruit. 55 acres in cultivation, 25 acres in timber. We consider this a great bargain at $37.50 per acre. Investigate.
- No. 14. 16 acres near the above, all in orchard for $1,000. Kindly look this up.
- No. 15. 240 acres southeast of Forbes, all bottom land and all in cultivation. Good land and $40.00 per acre will buy it.

The above are only a few of the many tracts of land that we have for sale. If you want to buy a farm, come in and see us.

We also have several bargains in residence property in Oregon that we would like to show you.

We have a complete set of abstracts of title to all real estate in Holt county. Your orders for abstracts are solicited, and we guarantee you prompt attention and accurate work. Yours for business,
